Dear Parents,

We value your input! As a parent of a child who receives Title I services in our school, you have the right to give input about how the school district budgets and spends its Title I Parental Involvement money. We also sent a parent copy of the survey home and posted the QR code on the website for parents to provide feedback.

Parents stated:

1. They would like the school to provide supplemental materials to support their child's learning instruction at home.
2. Parents asked for activities to encourage parent engagement and volunteering in schools.
1. Parents asked for more workshops that focused on instruction and curriculum for their children.
2. Parents would like to have workshops on how to collaborate and partner with the community.
3. Parents also wanted more training to support advanced education.
4. Many parents wanted more personnel to support communication between school and home.

We have $2,688.00 in the Title I Parental Involvement 1% budget. This year, given our parents' request to use the money towards supplies and materials for the parent resource center, workshops to teach parents how to assist their child with the Common Core Curriculum in order to better support their learning at home. Also, how to effectively communicate with individuals who work with their child. Additionally, we will offer creative activities that will parent engagement and volunteering (e.g., Wrapping books for students during Suder's Birthday celebration, Breakfast with Dads, Muffins with Moms, Santa Shop, classroom teachers hosting workshops with parents, etc.).
